ISSI CARNEVALE 2014

a passport to Northeastern, a passport to the World

ISSI Carnevale is a two-month long cultural celebration that highlights the rich diversity found on campus through the promotion of intercultural awareness and exploration. A variety of festivities will encourage a connection between members of the Northeastern community, while highlighting the wonderful differences between our backgrounds and lifestyles. This collaboration and participation emphasizes the existence of a singular beautiful humanity here at Northeastern.

19th ANNUAL ISSI CARNEVALE TAKE-OFF

Monday, February 3, 2014, Curry Student Center Ballroom
4:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

The International Student and Scholar Institute (ISSI) of Northeastern University invites you to the first 2014 Carnevale celebration of the year! Join ISSI staff and student leaders at our first signature event to sample an array of international cuisines, make friends from across the globe, and learn more about the events and activities planned for the ISSI Carnevale 2014.

PHOTO VOICE

Submissions open Monday, February 3 through Friday, February 28, 2014

(See winning photos at ISSI Pop-Up Art Show on Thursday, March 27)

Our life is a journey - every moment we encounter is precious and should be cherished. Sometimes these moments are so ephemeral that only by capturing these moments can we keep them timeless. Photo Voice is a photo contest where contestants will submit photos that present the stories of their lives. Images can be submitted through the ISSI website: northeastern.edu/issi.

INTERFAITH HARMONY WEEK

Friday, February 7 through Friday, February 14, 2014

Co-sponsored by the Center for Spirituality, Dialogue and Service (CSDS) and ISSI, Interfaith Harmony Week is a unique opportunity to celebrate and learn about the rich religious diversity at Northeastern University and in the wider world. Highlights of this week include the February 10th keynote speaker Eboo Patel, internationally-acclaimed author and founder of the Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) (co-sponsored by Student Affairs and the College of Social Sciences and Humanities.) Other activities include campus dialogues, community service opportunities, special prayer, worship, and mediation programs, a faculty panel, and movie night. For more information about the Week's events and activities, please visit Facebook.com/NEUinterfaith, the CSDS website northeastern.edu/spirituallife, or stop by the Sacred Space on the second floor of Ell Hall.

ANDRÉS ALARCÓN SOCCER TOURNAMENT

Monday, March 10 & Wednesday, March 12, 2014, Cabot Cages

Whether you call it soccer or football, get your game face on and kickoff this year's Andrés Alarcón Soccer Tournament! Come watch as teams compete for this coveted title and a personalized plaque on the ISSI's championship trophy. Only one team will emerge victorious; do you have what it takes?

Andrés Alarcón was a dedicated student at Northeastern and an enthusiastic member of the ISSI. He was very active on campus and, unfortunately, left this world all too early. He was an avid soccer fan, so in his honor this tournament is named.

Teams may register starting February 18. To sign up a team and for game time updates, please visit the ISSI website: northeastern.edu/issi under "Life at NU".

ORIGAMI WORKSHOP

Tuesday, March 11, 2014, 405 Ell Hall - ISSI
5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Join the ISSI for a night learning this traditional Japanese art form. Unleash your artistic side and try your hand at creating an Orizuru, the most classic of all Japanese origami. If you are interested in participating in this event, please sign up on the ISSI website: northeastern.edu/issi under "Life at NU".
